

Champion of Freedom in State Senate Will Address Patriots

York County State Senator SCOTT WAGNER has been a voice for Pennsylvania patriots from the moment he won a special election to fill a vacancy in March of last year. A strong, vocal advocate for limited government, regulatory freedom, property tax elimination, and government reform, Mr. Wagner, as a successful business owner, has not become indebted to any special interests in his campaigning.

He does not accept a state pension, expense allowance, or health benefits. Mr. Wagner is the first person ever to be elected to the state Senate as a write-in candidate. As such, he is a prime example of how integrity and virtue can prevail over entrenched party politics.

ALSO: Patriot favorite Col.(Ret.) Frank Ryan will present an update on the economy and preview his new book, Life Lessons Learned.
